The Drooping Cherry.

LL8574

TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE — POSTKARTE

By Appointment.

(For Address Only.)

The Drooping Cherry. Only those who have seen a cherry tree blossoming in Japan can possibly imagine the delight of the spectacle. Every bough and twig is veiled in a delicate mist of beautiful blossoms, while beneath each tree the ground is covered with a thick coating of the petals. For some of Japan's favourite flowers you must travel far, but the cherry tree abounds throughout the Empire.

22.10.10

Have just booked to you our joint passage to Quebec. Hope you will approve of it. Y.C.S.

Mrs Best
Penbryn
Brecon
S. Wales.

SOUVENIR—Japan-British Exhibition, 1910.

"FLOWERS AND GARDENS OF JAPAN" Series IV.

Published by Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE" Postcard 7919.

BY SPECIAL PERMISSION TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN.

Specially Illustrated by Lilla Du Cane (L. & C. Black)

Printed in England